

Cross-Border Conversations

We loved our Cross-Border Conversation about international production management and production. A big thank you to Andrea Jajeh, Molly McGregor and Karyan Au-Yeung, who are all part of our mentoring community, for sharing their knowledge and insights.

The recording of the talk is on our YouTube channel. All our recordings are subtitled.

Look out for details of our 2023 Cross-Border Conversations in the new year. Don't forget to email us on info@screencraftworks.org if you have any ideas of topics you would like to see discussed, or if you would like to be a speaker.

Cross-Border Conversations, supported by Genelec, are a series of virtual discussions where a production or post-production expert from one country is in conversation with craft talent from a different country and a different career stage, to share career insights, knowledge and cultural perspectives. Speakers are drawn from our mentoring community.

Catch up with recordings or transcripts of our previous conversations.

End-of-year Survey

You should have received a survey link to help us assess the work we do for you. If you would like to share your feedback, please complete these by Monday 19 December.

If you haven't received a link, please get in touch on rebecca@screencraftworks.org. Many thanks.

Cross-Border Coffees

We are pleased to see our Cross-Border Coffees proving useful to our community. Here are writer-producer-actor Sara Fazilat from Germany and film editor Sourath Behan from Pakistan as they 'talk shop' across borders.

Interested in a Cross-Border Coffee? Email us on info@screencraftworks.org with your role, country and what you're seeking from a Cross-Border Coffee, to enable us to make the best match. To participate, you need to be a member of the ScreenCraft Works community - you can join \(for free\) here.

Thank you to Future Studios for supporting this initiative.

Deaf & Disabled People in TV and ScreenCraft Works future event

Deaf & Disabled People in TV and ScreenCraft Works are planning a joint event in 2023 with a particular focus for deaf, disabled and neurodivergent film and TV craft professionals and industry allies. Look out for details in the New Year. If you would like early information about this event, please get in touch. Thank you to DDPTV co-director Caroline O'Neill for the collaboration.

Wishing you the very best for the end of 2022, and looking forward to seeing you in the New Year.

For any ScreenCraft Works events that you enjoy, please consider donating £5 towards the cost of future events.
